BRIEF SUMMARY

Hello, my name is Krish Javiya, and I am a computer science student. I love learning how computers work, how they interact with the human world, and what makes them tick. I am excited to learn more about this field and continue contributing to the world around me through technology. I've always been passionate about learning new things, whether reading a book or working on some new projects. I just can't get enough of it! My most extensive interests include programming, web designing, and web development.
